

University of Utah University Teaching Assistantships

Academic Year 2017-18

Selection Process

A selection committee appointed by the Graduate School will meet to make the awards based on the criteria stated below. Departments will be notified of University Teaching Assistantship awards on or before April 15, 2017.

Selection Criteria

The proposals will be considered based on the following areas: (1) creative and/or new roles for TAs, (2) the impact of the proposed University Teaching Assistantship on University of Utah programs in general, and undergraduate education in particular, (3) the role of mentors in training and professional development of the TA, (4) the quality of the assessment plan and commitment to using that plan to improve the effectiveness of the UTA program.

Each University Teaching Assistant will work with an assigned mentor with demonstrated superior teaching ability, performance, and commitment. The teaching mentor need not necessarily be the student's supervisory committee chair, because the mentor will be primarily responsible for working with the student as she or he develops as a teacher. The colleges and departments should draw on faculty with demonstrated teaching expertise for a pool of mentors. This pool could include past recipients of university, department, and college teaching awards or persons otherwise recognized for teaching contributions.

Submission

Students should submit an electronic application no later than January 27, 2017. The nominated student teacher should submit the application and include their own personal information requested on the application, in addition to the items listed below. No department may submit more than two proposals.

To assist in our attempt to provide a fair evaluation, all proposals should follow the outline given below. Proposals that do not follow this outline will not be considered.
